

Guiding Principles of the Coaliția

1. Legal Standing

- 1.1. The name of the group is “Coaliția pentru Dezvoltarea României” (Coaliția). The Coaliția is not a legal entity according to Romanian law and it is constructed as a formal collaborative platform by its combined membership, all of which have good standing as organisations in Romania, subscribing to ethical principles of doing business.
- 1.2. The business associations which are members of the Coalitia have the prime responsibility to ensure the proper functioning and observance of all rules and principles.

2. Purpose

- 2.1. Conscious of the fragmented nature of the business and employer voice in Romania, the Coaliția is a broad-based platform that aligns the positions of Romanian-based business and employer organisations on behalf of their members, in order to provide a cohesive basis for consultation with Romanian authorities ¹on topics that impact the business climate in Romania.
- 2.2. The Coaliția does not lay claim to exclusivity in the process of dialogue with any Romanian authorities, nor has it been established solely for this purpose but it has been constructed in the belief that it is more effective for the Romanian authorities to consult with a broad-based business and employer forum that has already aligned its positions. This brings coherence and increases the quality of public policies in Romania in the message from businesses and employers to Romanian authorities.
- 2.3. It is the belief of the Coaliția that a process of systemic consultation with the Romanian authorities will enhance predictability and stability, improve the economic climate and increase the economic competitiveness in Romania.
- 2.4. Coalitia does not act as a lobby group or pursue any interest of its individual members.

- 2.5. The Steering Committee will periodically formulate or redefine the priorities that the Coalitia will focus for the next period, which will be observed by the Task Forces.

3. Modus Operandi of the Coalitia

- 3.1. To accomplish its goals Coalitia will establish task forces in order to achieve alignment among its members and consult on specific matters and long term planning.
- 3.2. The Steering Group decides on the setting up of task forces and on dismantling them once it no longer considers them necessary for carrying out the objectives of the Coalitia.
- 3.3. Each member of the Coalitia is responsible for observing the rules of the Coalitia as regards their representatives and the input to the Coalitia work.
- 3.4. Each organisation have to brief their representatives on the rules and the way of engagement in Coalitia.
- 3.5. Any breach of the rules may lead to reviewing the membership status of their organization in the Coalitia by the Steering Group.

Structure

The Structure of the Coalitia will consist of the following:

3.6. Plenary Group

3.6.1 The Plenary Group consists of all members of the Coalitia. The Plenary Group will meet at least twice a year. Decisions within the Plenary Group will be taken by consensus. Where consensus cannot be achieved, the Coordinator will consult with members and propose a solution to progress the work of the Coalitia.

3.7. Steering Group

3.7.1 The role of the Steering Group is to guide the work of the Coalitia and ensure that the consultative process with Romanian authorities works effectively. The Plenary Group will appoint the members of the Steering Group.. Appointments to the Steering Group will be made from Coalitia members that provide leadership and administrative support to ensure the successful working of the Coalitia. Ideally, membership of the Steering Group will be limited to no more than seven groups from within the membership of the Coalitia. All decisions within the Steering Group will be made by consensus.

- A number of business organisations and bilateral chambers of commerce, with a broad representation of business interests, from countries in the EU, EEA and North America.
- 5.3. The participation of some Embassies, as associated members, and Bilateral Business Associations will enable the Coaliția to draw from international best practice experience of business/Romanian authorities dialogue, in particular, in Scandinavian, western European countries and other non-EU countries with best practices in this area.
- 5.4. Associated members are part of the Plenary Group without voting rights and cannot be appointed to the Steering Group. Associated members are not required to actively participate in Task Forces. They have access, at any time, to any report, position note or any other document elaborated by the Task Forces as stipulated in paragraph 5.9.
- 5.5. Membership or associate membership does not prevent any organisation to continue to engage independently with the Romanian authorities.
- 5.6. The Coaliția intends to grow its membership to increase the representative nature of the dialogue with Romanian authorities. The Steering Group will manage membership matters and will report to the Plenary Group on this.
- 5.7. Associations that aim to adhere to Coaliția's membership will submit a letter of intent to the Steering Committee, reflecting their objectives and relevant expertise. If approved by the Steering Committee, the applicant will be granted a six-month temporary associate-membership and shall nominate representatives in at least two task forces. At the end of the six months, the Steering Committee will evaluate the commitment and involvement of the association and may decide to accept the applicant in Coaliția's standing membership.
- 5.8. Representation and active contribution to a minimum of two task forces will be observed by all Coaliția members.

6. Expenses of the Coaliția

- 6.1. The Standing Secretariat will cover the daily administrative costs of the Coaliția.
- 6.2. The cost of convening the Plenary Group and of organising the public events of the Coaliția will be covered by the business associations that are members of the Steering Group.
- 6.3. The cost of Task Forces activities will be covered by the Task Force members.
